Prepared for Emma Byrne · 6 October 2026

MODELO 149 DEADLINE

1 March 2027

146 days left

STEP 3 OF 8 · Register your documents and get the number for box 32

Every step of filing your Modelo 149 yourself, built from your diagnosis and your case file: where to click at the tax agency's e-office, and what to write in each box. You sign and file it yourself, with your own Cl@ve or certificate.

Your route	Employment contract with a Spanish company
Your cause on the form	[41] Start of an employment relationship with a Spanish employer
Your address for notifications	Calle de Alcalá 120, 4º B, 28009 Madrid
Modelo 149 deadline	1 March 2027 · 146 days left
Access to the e-office	Cl@ve
Documents	3 of 3 in your case file
Box 32 (registration number)	Not yet: step 3
Required boxes	1 missing
[32] Registration number of the documentation	Missing · add it in your case file

STEP 1 OF 8

DONE

Access to the tax agency's e-office

You will sign in with Cl@ve. Nothing to do in this step.

We will never ask for your digital certificate or your Cl@ve password, and nobody signs in for you.

STEP 2 OF 8

DONE

Your documents

These are the documents of your route. In step 3 they go to the tax agency, one file each (a PDF or a clear photo). The ones you uploaded are in your case file: download them from there.

Passport and NIE

In your case file

Where to get it: The NIE is issued by the police (Extranjería) in Spain or by a Spanish consulate before you travel. EU citizens receive it with their registration certificate.

Usual mistake: Filing with a passport number only. The form asks for the NIE.

Social Security registration (alta) showing the date

your employer issues it

In your case file

Where to get it: Your employer registers you. Ask HR for the registration resolution, or download the “informe de vida laboral” from the Social Security portal.

Usual mistake: Counting the 6 months from your arrival or your contract date instead of the registration.

Employment contract

your employer issues it

In your case file

Where to get it: Your employer. If it is in another language, keep a translation ready in case AEAT asks for it.

Usual mistake: A contract dated after you already lived in Spain, which suggests the move came first and the job second.

Register your documents and get the number for box 32

Before the form, your documents go to the tax agency through a procedure of their own. It gives you a registration number, and that number goes in box 32 of Modelo 149. Without it the form is incomplete.

1. Open the procedure «Modelo 149. Aportar documentación necesaria para optar por el régimen especial» (link below) and sign in with your CI@ve or your certificate.
2. «1. Generación de la solicitud»: your phone (twice), your email, and one file per document of step 2; then «Presentar».
3. «2. Firma y envío de la solicitud»: check the list of files and click «Firmar Enviar», signing with your CI@ve or certificate.
4. «3. Recibo de presentación»: download the receipt. The registration number on it starts with RGE.
5. Write that number in your case file. It is your box 32.

| 1 | «Ir al Error» | Each error has its «Ir al Error», which takes you to the box. Correct it and validate again until none is left. |
| 2 | «Validar declaración» | Click it first. It lists any error or warning; «Ir al error» takes you to the box. Correct them until it says there are none. |
| 3 | «Firmar y Enviar» | A window shows the return and your details. Tick «Conforme» and click «Firmar y Enviar» again. |

Optional: it keeps a draft at the tax agency, even with errors, and «Cargar» brings it back if you close the window.

If all is well you see «Su presentación ha sido realizada con éxito» and a PDF: its first page has the registration entry number, the secure verification code (CSV), the receipt number («número de justificante») and the date and time. Download it and keep it.

Then tell us on Your case («I've filed it»): the deadline reminders stop.

STEP 6 OF 8

LATER

After filing

The tax agency has up to 10 working days to issue the «documento acreditativo», the document that says you opted for the regime. Watch your notifications at the e-office and at DEHú, and keep it with your receipt.

Turn on the notification alerts by email: an electronic notification left unopened for 10 calendar days counts as delivered.

Electronic notifications (e-office): <https://sede.agenciatributaria.gob.es/Sede/procedimientoini/ZN01.shtml>

DEHú: <https://dehu.redsara.es>

Give the documento acreditativo to whoever runs your payroll, with a new Modelo 145: from then on they withhold under the regime.

If a request for documents («requerimiento») arrives instead, it has its own deadline, usually 10 working days. Answer it in time: a request left unanswered can sink a correct application. Answering it is not part of Guided filing; a professional can do it for you.

If something changes (you stop meeting a condition, or your move ends while you stay resident), there is one month to tell the tax agency, with a Modelo 149 of its own. Talk to a professional before.

STEP 7 OF 8

DOES NOT APPLY

Your family

No family member opts in with you. If one will, each of them files their own Modelo 149 after yours.

Every year

Under the regime you file Modelo 151 every year, in the income tax campaign (April to 30 June) for the year before, even if your income is low. Never Modelo 100.

- Tax year 2026: Modelo 151 in spring 2027
- Tax year 2027: Modelo 151 in spring 2028
- Tax year 2028: Modelo 151 in spring 2029
- Tax year 2029: Modelo 151 in spring 2030
- Tax year 2030: Modelo 151 in spring 2031 (year 5: we remind you to plan the end)
- Tax year 2031: Modelo 151 in spring 2032

Your registration falls in the second half of the year: your first year under the regime may be the next one, depending on the days you spend in Spain.

We email you every April with the Modelo 151 and, in year 5, a reminder to plan the end of the regime.

This guide sets out your data and the steps to file Modelo 149; it is not tax advice. Your deadline and the mandatory boxes are calculated from the law; the data extracted from your documents stays pending until you confirm it.
